The Jesus Christ Resurrection statue in the Vatican when mirrored reveals the head of Baphomet (Why does this dude appear everywhere?)

To add fuel to the flames, the Rome Vatican Jesus Christ "Resurrection" statue mirrored reveals the head of Baphomet or the Devil:

Too bad your image is shopped. The real sculpture doesn't look like that:

It's also intended to depict the gruesome possibility of nuclear war, so what do you want? Puppies and sunshine?

So the people who cried about "fake news" are the ones who blindly believe anything they see on the internet...

Angle a mirror on almost anything the right way and you'll get an apophenic / pareidolic image you'd like to say is either a demon or a goat or whatever superstitious nonsense makes the incessant witch hunt you call life more enjoyable. What's the conspiracy? "Gentleman, I've gathered you here to discuss the plans for hiding half of baphomet's image perceived only with a bit of imagination if precisely mirrored at this cross section. Muahahahaha"

That's a pretty far stretch, my guy. This whole Baphomet-in-the-Vatican thing is straight-up BS. You've got people taking a mirrored photo of a sculpture...one that's already abstract as hell...and claiming it's proof of devil worship. It's not. It's art. Specifically, it's a 1970s sculpture called The Resurrection by Pericle Fazzini, meant to show Jesus rising from the chaos of a nuclear apocalypse. That's why it looks twisted and intense, and not because it's hiding goat demons.

The Baphomet shape doesn't exist unless you digitally flip the image. That's like folding a Rorschach test and saying it proves Satan lives in your inkblot. Come on r/conspiracy, this is a stretch even for us. You're inventing patterns where there are none and calling it revelation.

If you think the Vatican would plant a satanic statue dead-center in one of their most public halls and no one but a couple Reddit dudes cracked the code...you're not woke, just lost.

Does the Vatican worship the Devil? The Vatican building is shaped in the form of the head of a snake and within the building is a statue that when mirrored forms the head of Baphomet
